

NCAA Division III Women's Volleyball Championship • Oshkosh Regional

College of St. Benedict Notes

Head coach Michelle Blaeser was named MIAC Co-Coach of the Year.

Emma Jaynes, Beth Hanson, and Kayli Schumacher were named All-MIAC.

Alex Lenzen was named to the MIAC All-Sportsmanship team.

Jaynes and Hanson were also named to the CoSida Academic All-District team.

The entire Blazer volleyball team was this week's CSB Team of the Week after winning the MIAC Regular Season Championship

The Blazers were the MIAC regular season and MIAC Playoff Champions.

Schumacher was named AVCA Division III Player of the Week (Oct. 19)

Hanson was named MIAC Player of the Week twice.

Hanson broke the CSB all-time assist record of 4,615 this season.

Schumacher was named MIAC Player of the Week on one occasion.

Chelsie Sobieck and Schumacher were named CSB Player of the Week.

The Blazers are 20-1 when Kayli Schumacher hits a .250 hitting percentage or better.

They are 11-2 when Amber Wortz has two or more aces.

CSB is 16-5 when Emma Jaynes grabs 10 or more digs.

The Blazers are 12-4 when Calleigh Brown totals 10 or more kills.

CSB is 16-3 when Candace Bartels has three or more blocks.

The Blazers average 13.3 kills per set, holding their opponents to 7.9.

They maintain a .252 hitting percentage, keeping their opponents at .028.

They average 2.5 service aces per set, with only 1.05 from their opponents.

They have 2.59 blocks per set as their opponents only have 1.68